JACKSON MEMORIAL HIGH SCHOOL

The trophy case more than anything else symbolizes the aspirations, achievements, and school spirit of our school. The trophies in this picture have been accumulating over the years, and many organizations have contributed to this collection. Beside the teams in football, basketball, and baseball, clubs have done their part such as the Hi-Y, F. F. A., and N. F. L. The entire student body share the honors for their support in the athletic contests and for the addition of the Sportsmanship Trophies. Each year we try to add new ones, and this year we have been very successful.

FOREWORD

Our lifetime is in a world of progress. This memory book will be a keepsake as one passes from youth to growth and progress. Youth, ever looking forward, is suggested by this futuristic theme. Some will advance to larger and even greater fields of learning, but this doesn't mean that youth will be forgotten. Within these pages one will always find memories of the wonderful days he has had.

OUR HIGH SCHOOL

The students of Jackson are very proud of their school. They are proud to hear people say that Jackson is one of the most modern schools in Stark County. Our school is keeping right in style with the progressing world.

FIFTEENTH ANNUAL EDITION

"The doorway of knowledge." Through these doors the students enter and leave each school day.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

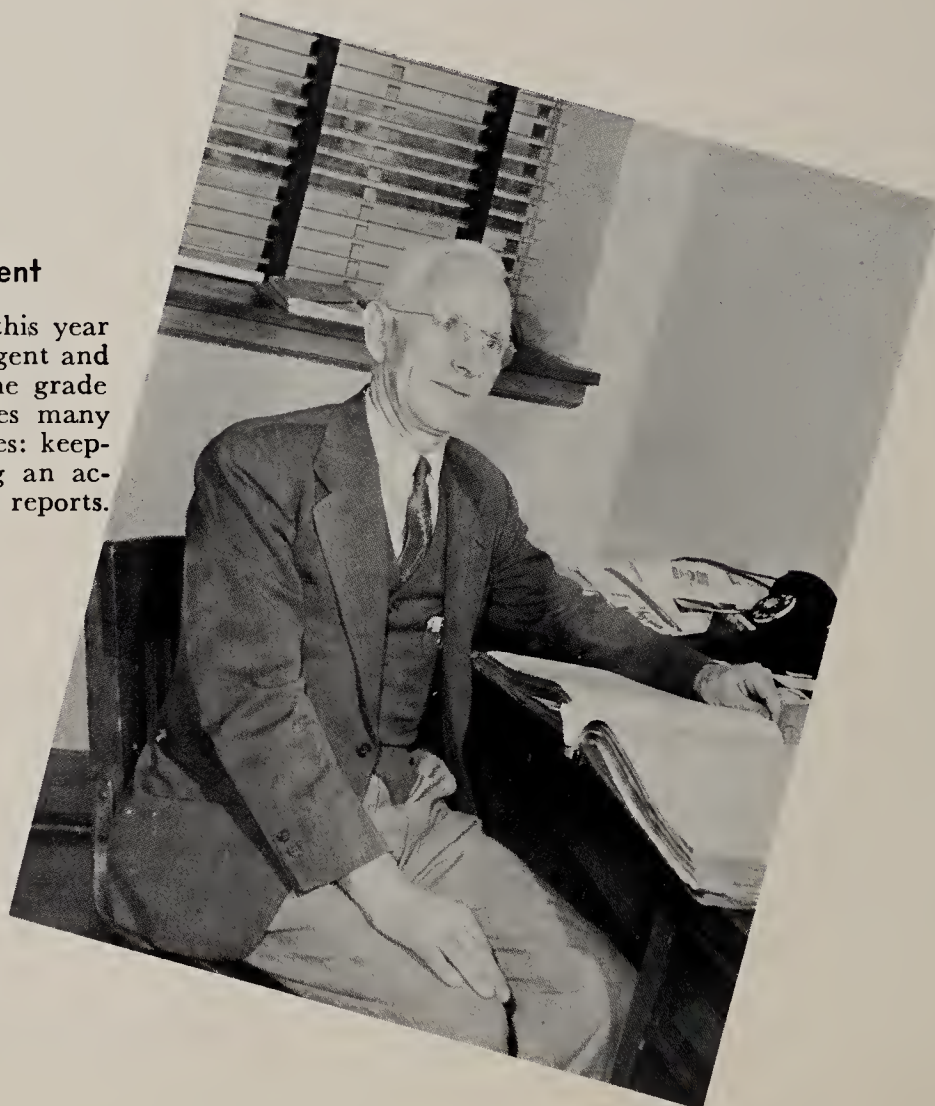

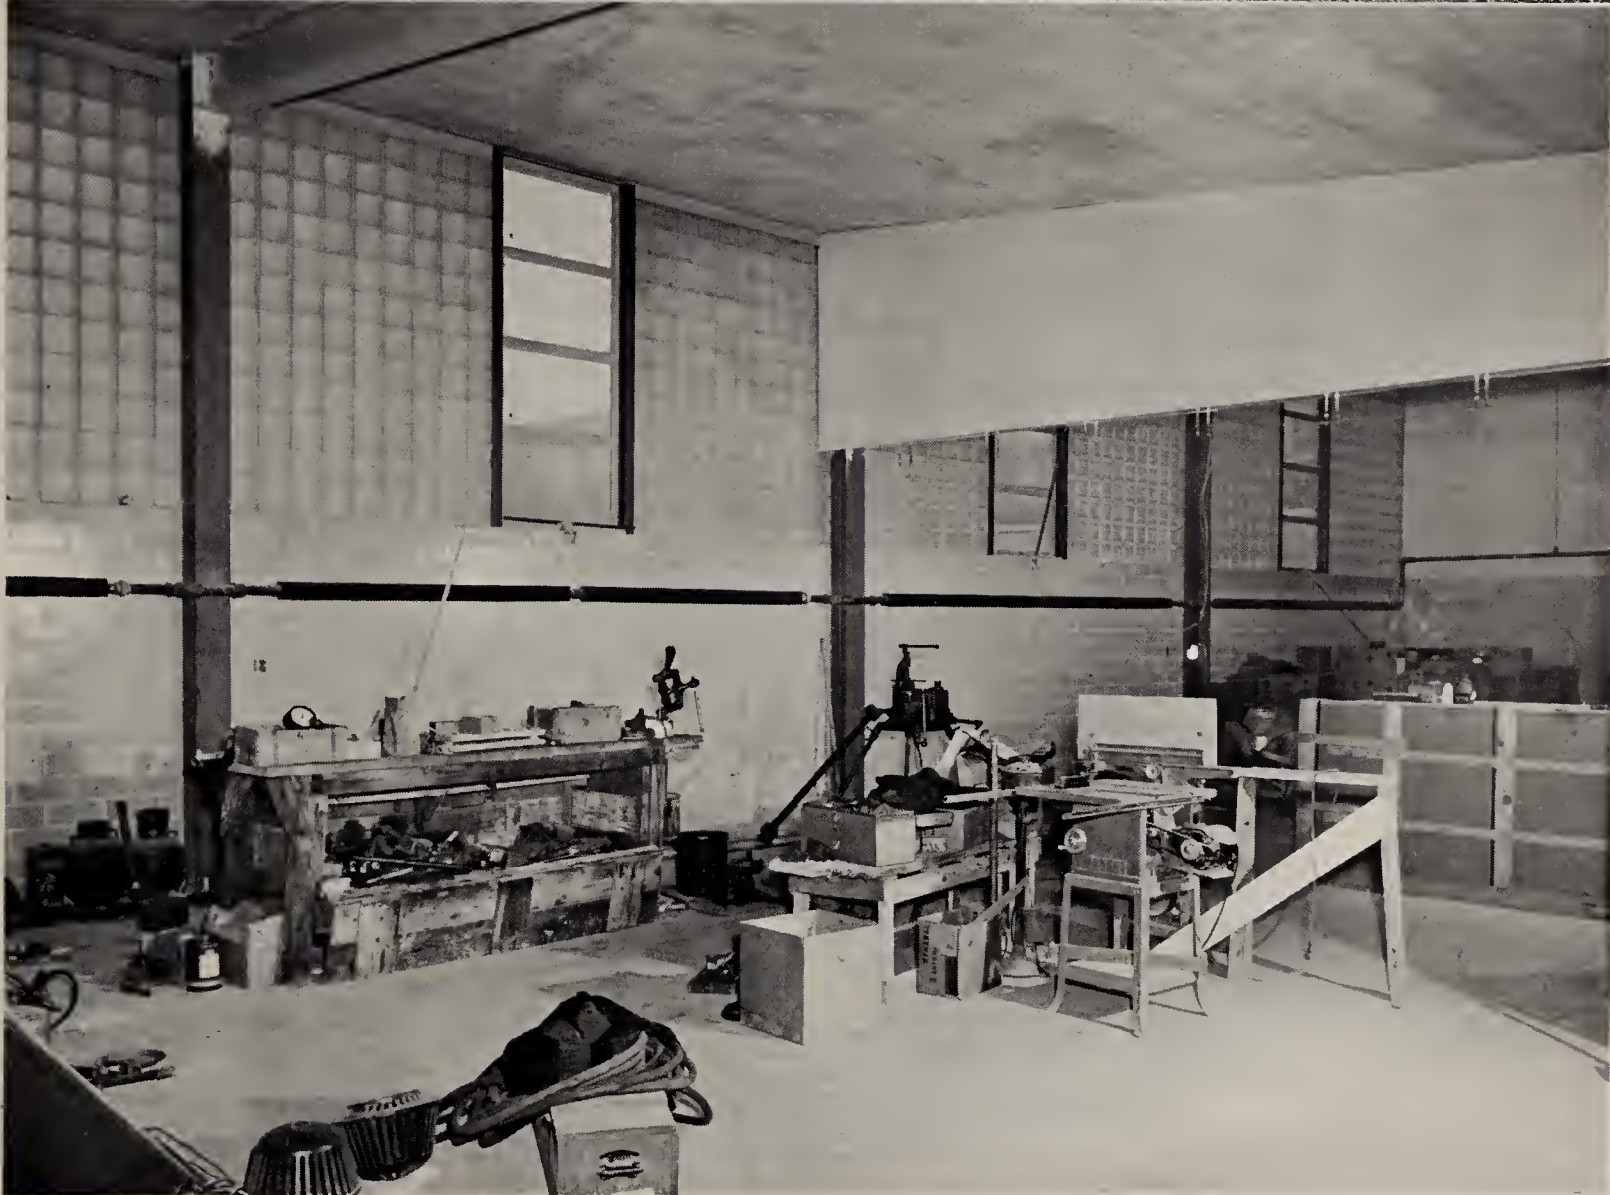

SEATED: George Dobson, President; William Essig, Clerk; Murray Collie.
STANDING: H. C. Sauder, Supt.; Marion DeWalt, Vice President; Marion Conkle.

WILLIAM ESSIG, Purchasing Agent

A new and important job was started this year at Jackson. Mr. Essig is our purchasing agent and has his own office on the first floor of the grade school. Being a purchasing agent carries many responsibilities other than the name implies: keeping records of the board meetings, being an accountant, and making of county and state reports.

W. S. Essig

The top picture is a view of our new grade addition. It contains six rooms.
The bottom picture shows our band room and cafeteria under construction.
The students are anxiously awaiting the completion.

DEDICATION

This maker of ledgers and keeper of books,
Mr. Gatchell finds mistakes for which he looks.

The principal of our school is great,
With the students Mr. Lawrence really does rate.

Typewriter keys and a system of touch
In Mrs. Bond's class, a student learns much.

Mr. Hart came from the mountain state,
He teaches English and is coach of debate.

A careful and safe driver you can be,
Take Mr. Amacher's driving course and see.

With a little baton he performs a great feat,
Mr. Breden's band is hard to beat.

Of bird and fish and flower and tree,
Mr. Ramga teaches in biology.

Librarian successful is our dispenser of books,
Mrs. Ramga treasures real pleasures in interesting nooks.

A fine Home Ec. teacher is Mrs. Piatt
She helps students prepare a food diet.

Agriculture is Dale Brumbaugh's line, With Jackson's students he gets along fine.

Classify sentences simple, complex, and compound, A teacher like Mr. Geib is hard to be found.

Mr. Dobson—master of truancy and the electrical clock, Shows how the problems of geometry unlock.

Mr. Matthews is advisor to the J. T. A. A. He's a swell guy who helps in every way.

Mr. Haverstock is known for his themes, He also coaches one of the basketball teams.

The jolly smile on his face is real, To know Mr. Fife is worth a great deal.

A fine dramatic coach is she, Mrs. McKenna directs plays you like to see.

The students of J. H. have been properly reared, By Mr. Sauder, Supt., to whom they are endeared.

Physical Education is her specialty, Mrs. Baxter is a lot of fun, you'll see.

Behind all these books you will see, Mrs. Hyde—as swell a teacher as can be.

As a means of showing our appreciation and gratitude, we, the Senior class of 1953 wish to dedicate this annual to the high school faculty. We will always remember the patience of all the teachers during our four years of high school. Through their cheerful guidance, life's gates have opened and our destination as seniors is reached. In our four years we have learned that "Teachers are a student's best friend."

With best wishes for their future success we want to say "Everything you've done for us was greatly appreciated."

MR. H. C. SAUDER, Superintendent

To all Jackson students Mr. Sauder's kindness, his untiring efforts, and his never ceasing loyalty will long be remembered. At present, Mr. Sauder is working on a new addition to our school. The attendance is growing, therefore the school must grow and Mr. Sauder's job increases, also.

You have done a fine job in the past, Mr. Sauder, and we wish you the best success in the future.

MISS PATRICIA JOLLIFF
Secretary

We are grateful to have such an efficient secretary as Patty. She is always ready with a friendly, welcoming smile to students passing through into the superintendent's "Inner Sanctum."

MR. LAWRENCE, High School Principal

A man of many trades, Principal Preston M. Lawrence, often leaves his office on second floor to take over study hall or teach his classes of civics and world history. He is always ready to lend a helping hand. Fulfilling his duties as principal, he is often seen talking and guiding the students. Memories of Mr. Lawrence, a good teacher and counselor, will long remain in the heart of every senior.

CLASS COLORS Green and White

CLASS FLOWER Yellow Rose

MOTTO "Not at the top but climbing"

TRIBUTE TO OUR ALMA MATER

Green and white and a yellow rose
Are the emblems we so proudly chose;
Our motto was the guiding light
For all the years we had in sight.
These cherished moments will always last
Thru all the years we'll recall the past.
Jackson High in our thoughts will stay
Like the teachers' kindness day by day.
Our parties, our proms and our plays
Will be remembered by us always.
Now we are leaving your celestial halls
And answering the future's beckoning calls.
Our task in this world has just begun,
There remains a place for everyone.
So from—the Class of '53,
This is our farewell message to thee.
You shall remain in our memories dear,
We'll love and honor you—far and near.
To the future, let the years foretell,
Now we bid thee all a fond farewell.

SHADOWS

This year fifty shadows will be left on the halls and walls of Jackson on May 29, 1953. These impressions might be the masterpieces scribbled on scratch paper or the pictures behind the glass in the library. Some of these shadows have already passed into history, others have been recorded in Mr. Lawrence's office, still others have been recorded in the memories of the students of Jackson.

Let's stop for a moment and take a trip with adverbs and adjectives around the halls and get a preview of these shadows.

Although shadows begin very early in the morning around school, the active shadows usually are varied to a great extent. Looking into Civics class we see Sally M. matching wits with Mr. Lawrence. Also we see Don S. catching up on his sleep.

Looking into the band room first period we see many shadows of musical notes flitting about. We trace these to the source and we see Pauline N. and Anna Mary R. having a jam session on the oboe and flute respectively. Adding a hot cornet is none other than James E. Holding down the clarinet section is Carol N., Nan G., Sue S., Blanche G., and Shirley R.

Out in the hall between periods we see two well built shadows demonstrating to a small bunch of underclassmen how to build strong muscles. Taking a closer look they turn out to be our handsome athletes, Bill F. and Ricky P.

Second period we see the shadow of our attendance expert, Jean T. making the rounds of the rooms. Back in the office we see the rapid moving carriages of our typing experts, Lillian N. and Ruth S.

Peeking into study hall between periods we don't see many seniors for most of them have either found or devised some reason to get out. We do see the secretive shadows of Nancy W. and Martha E., trying to find a new code system for illegal communication. At the back we see the huddled shadow of Jackie M. and Shirley H. talking over the coming evening activities under the cover of a bookkeeping book. We also see Ruth A. busily doing art work and Doralee M. seems to be occupied in study while Marie W. is combing her hair.

As the bell rings the mad rush for the door starts. Out in the hall the shadows cease to be, for the light is so brilliant that we can hardly see. As we look down at the end of the hall we understand for there Adrienne B., Barb H., Lucille N., and Lou Ella V. are comparing sparklers. Looking to the other end of the hall we see another brilliant light. As we move closer we see Tom M. showing the principles of cordovan shine to Dick H.

During activity period we notice considerable action in the conference room. Taking a peek we see Don M. trying to settle the busy-body officers. In the meeting we notice our efficient secretary, Mary Lou F., our able treasurer, Fred G., and our program chairman, Dick M., working on a senior brainstorm.

Taking a little journey to the agriculture department we see the shadow of a tractor against the wall. Servicing this shadow are Norman A., Jack M., and Dale R.

At noon, we see marriage instruction class has taken up in the study hall with Charlene B. at the head.

The fourth period we look into English Literature to see all shadows here have gone into dormancy. After a good lunch the hibernating shadows take the forms of Bob B. and Kenny W. The only active shadows in class are Marilyn K. and Kathleen B. who are trying to start an argument with Mrs. Hyde.

In most schools the afternoon is quite dull but not at Jackson. About one o'clock our shadows in school begin to tremor and shake. This we know can come from only one source, the economics room. All order is ceased to be when "Peter Larry" Koontz, has just cut loose with a good one. Don G. has been aroused from sleep and adds somewhat to the uproar, while Kate F., Marlene A., and Mary K. try to hide the grins.

The sixth period we see the active shadows of Buzz B. and Jim D. working on the yearbook.

As the final bell rings we notice our senior athletes Ralph M., Jerry S., and Tom S. headed to the locker rooms to play a game of shadow ball.

To close another day our shadows seem to have gone into dormancy but every time we reread this yearbook we will again see the active shadows of the "Class of '53".

Deadlines! What a meaningful word to the members of the "Times" staff! Few people realize the work done by these students in getting out a paper—even once a month. There're pictures to take, illustrations to draw, articles to write, rewrite, type, and proofread. There're people to interview, opinions to get, headlines to print, and finally, cutting, pasting, putting all this together to form—a paper!

Being a service organization, the Y-Teens started the year by collecting food and clothing for needy families of the community. More activities during the year included a world fellowship dinner in December, a panel discussion in January, a Mother-Daughter banquet in February, a dance for the high school in March, in April our annual formal, and in May an overnight camping trip. All these activities make the organization quite enjoyable.

FIFTH ROW: Mrs. Baxter, Advisor; Anna Mary Rohr, Martha Eckert, Jackie Mullet, Shirley Hudson. ABSENTEES: Marlene Anushock, Shirley Gemind, Sue Swart.

The Y-Teens started the year off by sending candy bars to some of the European countries. At Christmas time the Y-Teens gladdened the hearts of some needy families by giving them presents. We had a movie on Brotherhood during the month of February. In April we went bowling and went out for a movie and dinner. Career Day was especially enjoyed this year because of the great variety of speakers. We had a very nice candlelight recognition service. The Y-Teen formal, mother's tea, and senior breakfast brought the Y-Teen activities to a close.

HI-Y GROUPS

is strictly a service organization. Assistant librarians work at the circulation desk, process, mend, and shelve books, arrange bulletin boards and displays, assist in cataloging and classification of books, and help do many other tasks necessary in a library. Meetings of the group are held twice each month for instruction and discussion.

A black and white photograph of a large group of students in military-style uniforms, posing in a gymnasium. The students are arranged in several rows, with some standing in the back and others sitting on folding chairs in the front. They are holding various instruments, including brass instruments like tubas and euphoniums, and woodwinds like flutes and clarinets. A large tuba is visible on the right side of the image. The background shows a brick wall and a wooden floor with a circular line.

The 1952-53 season really started with daily practices during the summer for the Stark County Fair. The marching band, consisting of fifty-four players and a number of alternates to fill in possible vacancies, had a very successful and enjoyable season.

Bob Fife coached the Jackson Polar Bears to one of their most successful football seasons in the school's history. This is Bob's seventh year at the helm and we hope he stays many more.

RESERVE FOOTBALL SQUAD

Boron, Peter Pearson and Chuck Bush Managers. ROW 3: Ronny Dow, Kenny Decker, Mickey Foust, Arden Shammo, Bill Dessecker, Sam Stockon, Skip Shinkle.

Larry Koontz. Larry stepped in a halfback position due to an injury and did a very commendable job.

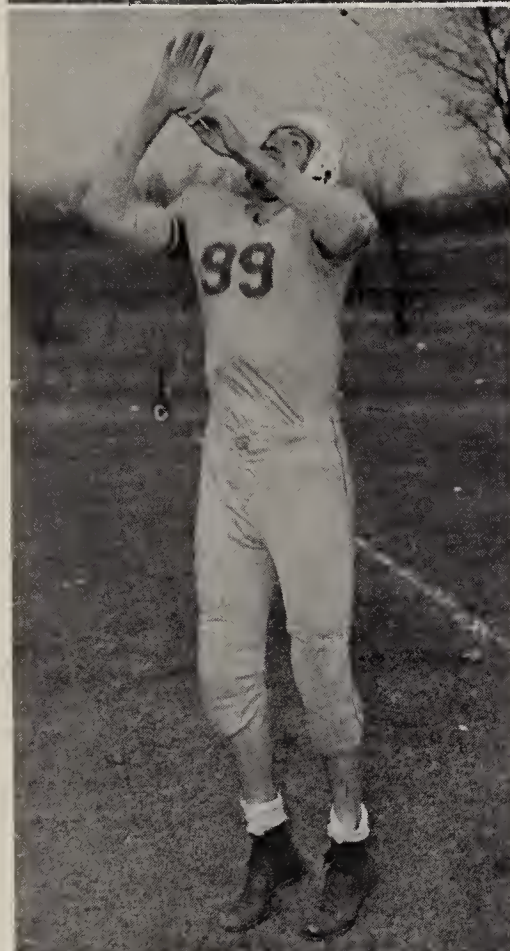

Ricky Preece. Ricky was a downfield blocking star whose ability on defense sparkled with vicious, hard-smashing tackles.

Bill Foust. Willie's determination fought off injuries and enabled him to give a fine showing at fullback.

Dick Hunsinger. Giggie's desire and determination landed him at defensive half where his ability was shown.

Ralph Maurer, co-captain. Buckets was the receiving end of a lot of those unbelievable pass plays. Ralph was chosen for the third year for the All-County team.

Leroy Maurer. An excellent blocker, Buck broke many long runs. He was chosen to man the tackle position on the All-County team.

Todd Bender. With "Kill the quarterback" his motto Todd came bursting through the line many times.

Bub Leonard. One of the unsung heroes of the ball team, Bub was superb on either offense or defense.

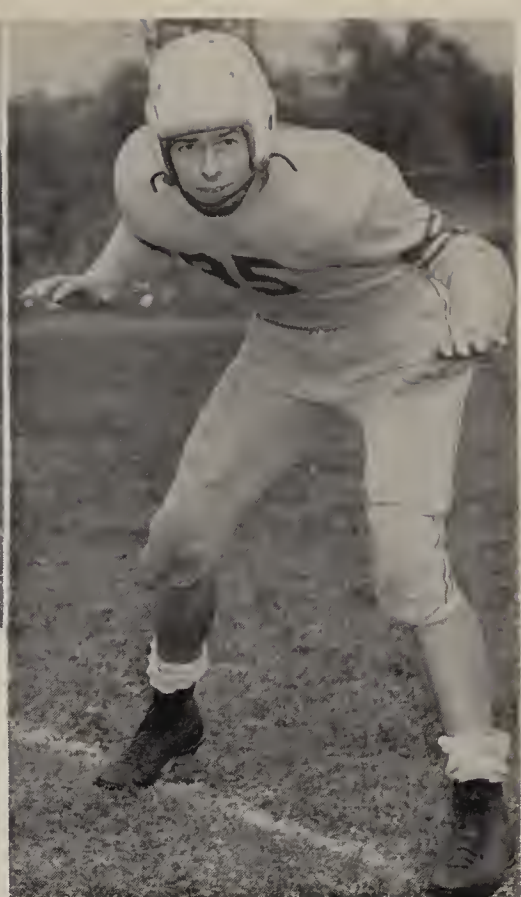

Don Good. Although slowed by a leg injury, Don's shifty running earned him well-earned recognition.

Tom Strouble, co-captain. Tom's speed and ability to elude tacklers was admirable. He also was our warm-up leader.

Roy Blile. Some nice catches on long passes made Roy's playing look good. Down-field blocking was his specialty.

Gerry Saunier. Tough luck knocked Gerry out of action early in the season, but the injury failed to destroy his desire to win. His running at half was exceptional.

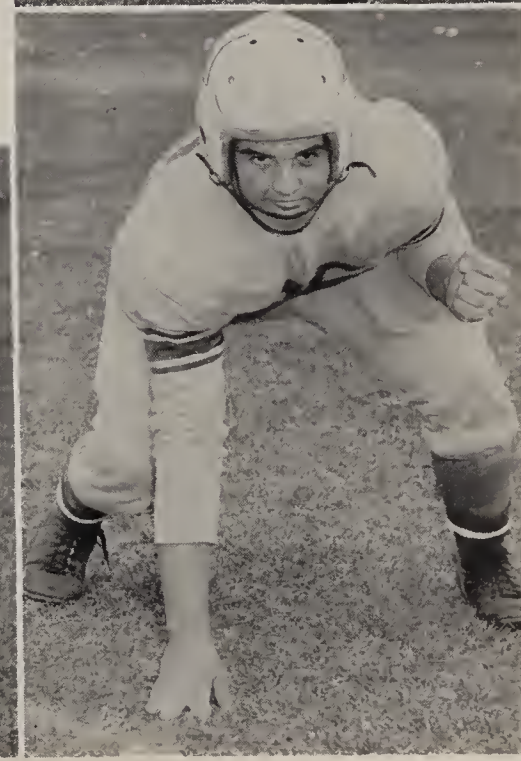

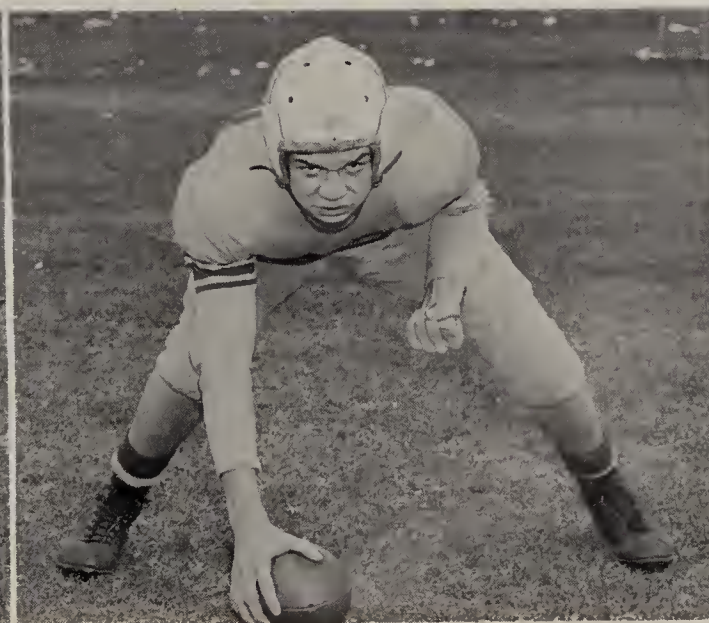

Dave Turske. Directing the offense and playing defensive half were Dave's jobs. He mastered both well. He will be one of next year's co-captains.

Dick Herman. One of the fastest, roughest, toughest guards in the county, Dick held down the middle of the line with viciousness.

Gene Stockert. Aggressive blocking through the entire year earned Gene an All-County position. Gene's only trouble was an oversized nose.

Don McNutt. Don was always in the back-field of the opposition and his vicious tackles put him on the All-County team.

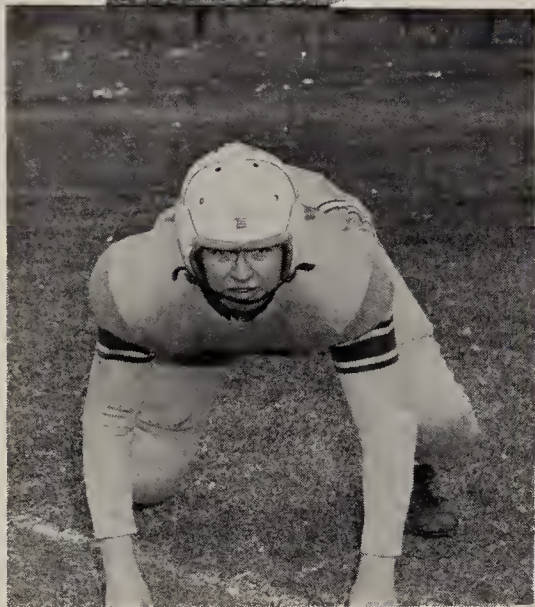

OFFENSIVE TEAM

LINE: Ricky Preece, Bub Leonard, Gene Stockert, Don McNutt, Dick Herman, LeRoy Maurer, Ralph Maurer.

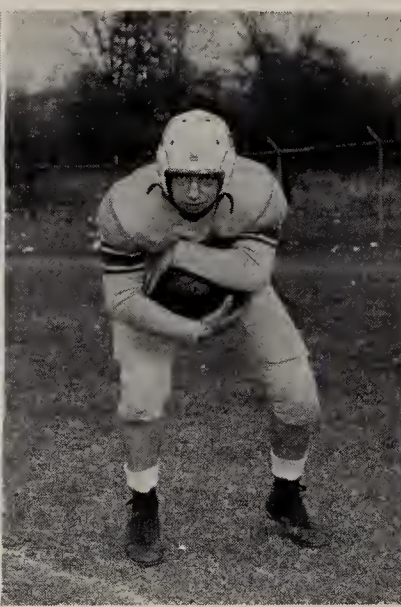

BACKFIELD: Larry Koontz, Dave Turske, Don Good, Tom Strouble.

Merle Albrecht: One of the big boys on the team, Merle's specialty was to hold down the oncoming opponents on the try for extra points.

Jim Johnston: Jim didn't get much chance to prove his ability this year so Jacksonites will get a better look at him next year.

Jack Singer: Jack showed a great deal of promise this year and with his running ability, next year should be his year.

Jim Simon: Jim was substitute quarterback.

Larry Weiss: Larry played offensive center.

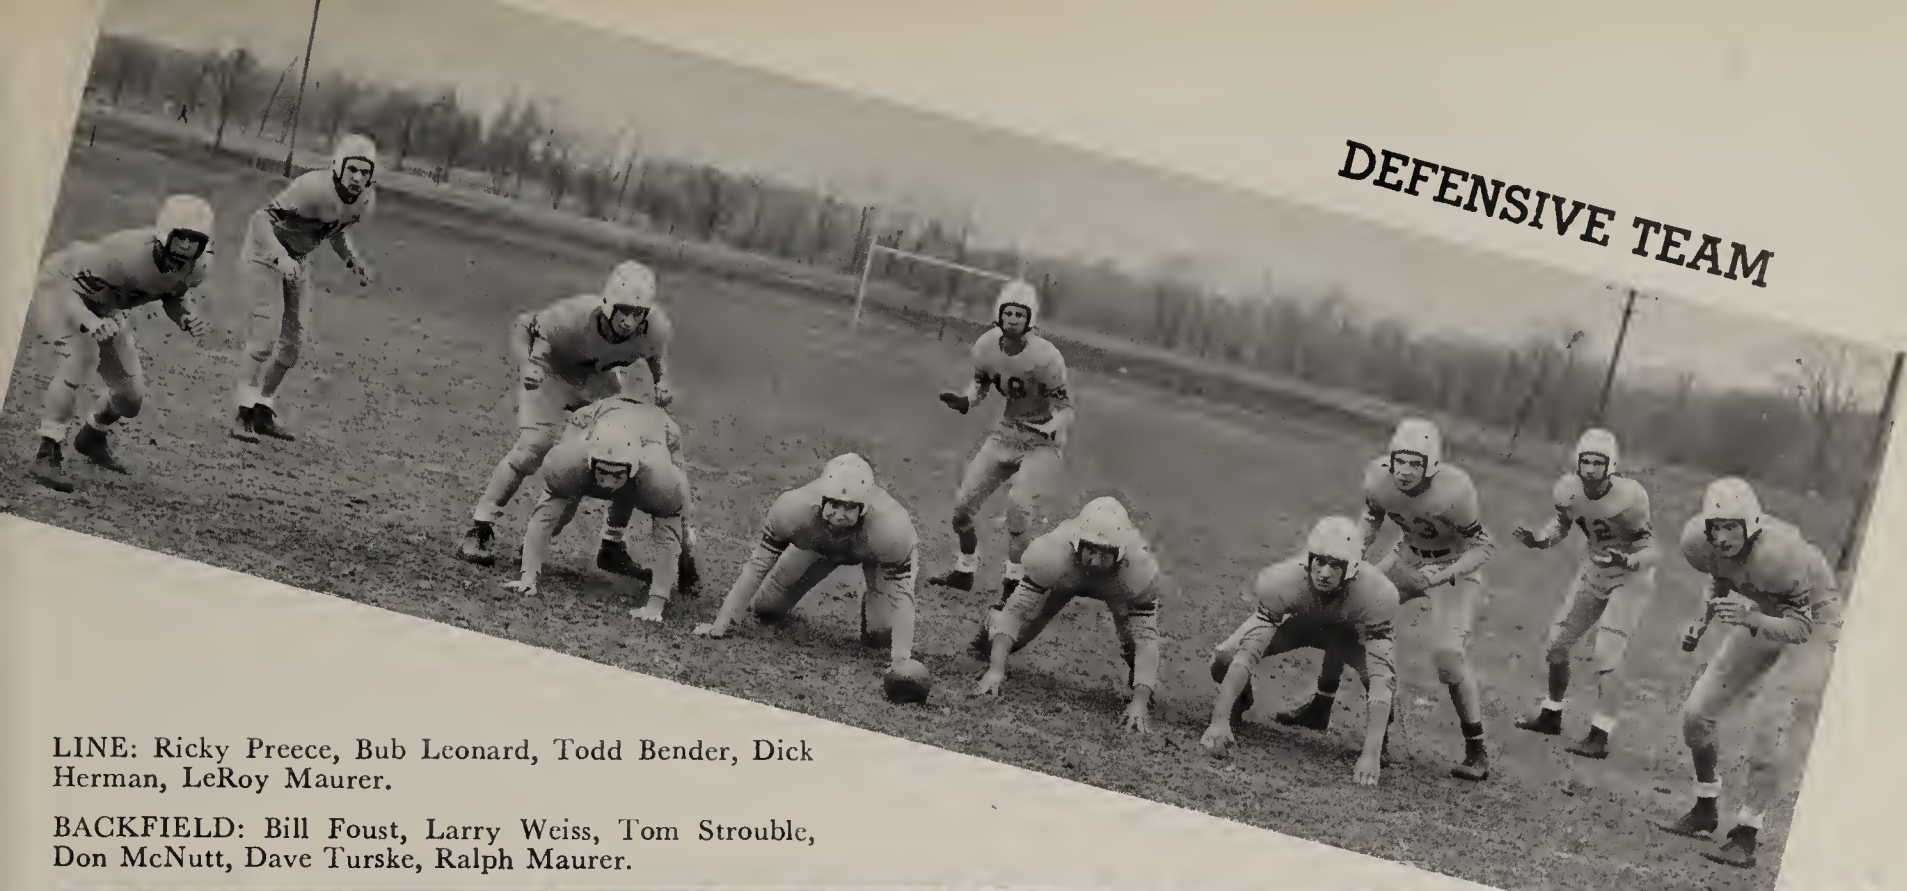

Maurer's long legs help him to make long gains against the opposition.

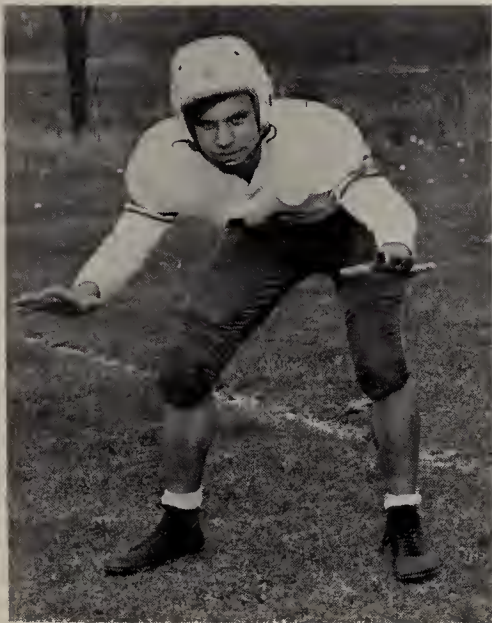

Little Koontz runs into trouble against Middlebranch.

DEFENSIVE TEAM

LINE: Ricky Preece, Bub Leonard, Todd Bender, Dick Herman, LeRoy Maurer.

BACKFIELD: Bill Foust, Larry Weiss, Tom Strouble, Don McNutt, Dave Turske, Ralph Maurer.

Joe Bertoni: Joe didn't play much this year but believe me when he tackles you, you have no doubt who hit you.

John Reigar: Padding wasn't John's problem this year but it would have taken a lot of it to smother his fighting spirit.

Dick Morton: As a freshman Dick proved he had what it takes to make a varsity back-field runner.

Vergil Bertoni: Ted used his weight to an advantage this year and in the coming years he will be a valuable asset to the Jackson team.

Foust smashes through the center of the line

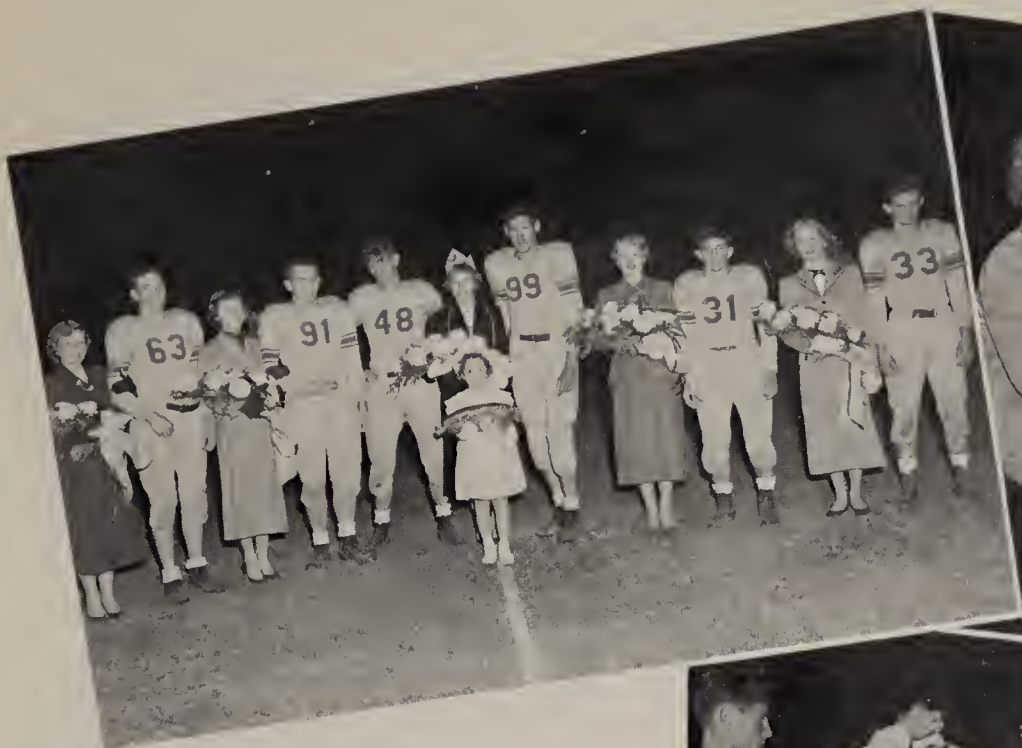

Maurer leads the blocking as Saunier picks up those all-important yards.

FOOTBALL QUEEN

MISS NANCY WEICK reigned as our football queen of 1952-53. This great honor was not altogether foreign to Nancy for she was an attendant in her sophomore and junior years. Nevertheless, it was a thrill which will remain with her throughout the coming years.

TOP LEFT: The queen and attendants were escorted by senior members of the team. The flowers for the queen and her attendants were furnished by the J. T. A. A.

CENTER: The crowning of our queen by the co-captains, Tom Strouble and Ralph Maurer. Sandy Matthews was crown bearer.

Dale's determination to win gave the team the inspiration that every team needs. In the years to come we are sure that Mr. Haverstock will put out winning teams.

"If"

By RUDYARD KIPLING

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise;

If you can dream—and not make dreams your master;
If you can think—and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two impostors just the same:
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools;

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss:
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings—nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much:
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

Were our forefathers just another group of radicals trying to create a government for their own gain? Or were they earnestly striving to establish a democracy of the people, by the people and for the people? The value and foresight of their words, as written in the Declaration of Independence, has been proved by the rapid progress and growth of American Democracy. What was written over 175 years ago still holds good. "—that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of happiness." Let's stick to it.

BEGINNING AT TOP: Willie on the way against North Canton. Ricky P. gaining ground after grabbing a short pass. Don M. and Tom S. work on defense against Hartville. Tom eludes would-be tacklers. Good headed for the Middlebranch goal line. Singer cuts back for a nice gain. The short pass connects with Ralph M. for a good gain. McNutt, Turske, and Strouble alert on pass defense

A scene from way back. — How do those popsickles taste, girls? — Isn't love grand!! — A typical scene at the Jr.-Sr. Prom — You sure have attractive dates, boys. — Looks like it has rained. — What nice gentle horses. — "3" well known big wheels. — Pals! — Majorettes?? — I thought pyramids were found in Egypt. — The bottle is almost bigger than you, Sirley!!
